Introduction

Delegations by Council under the Local Government Act 1995 (LG Act)

Section 5.42 of the LG Act provides the power for a local government to delegate to the Chief Executive Officer the exercise of any of its powers or the discharge of any of its duties under the LG Act except those listed in section 5.43 (see below). Delegations must be in writing and can be general or have conditions attached.

A local government cannot delegate to a CEO any of the following powers or duties —

- (a) any power or duty that requires a decision of an absolute majority or a 75% majority of the local government;*
- (b) accepting a tender which exceeds an amount determined by the local government for the purpose of this paragraph;*
- (c) appointing an auditor;*
- (d) acquiring or disposing of any property valued at an amount exceeding an amount determined by the local government for the purpose of this paragraph;*
- (e) any of the local government's powers under section 5.98, 5.98A, 5.99, 5.99A or 5.100;*
- (f) borrowing money on behalf of the local government;*
- (g) hearing or determining an objection of a kind referred to in section 9.5;*
- (ha) the power under section 9.49A (4) to authorise a person to sign documents on behalf of the local government;*
- (h) any power or duty that requires the approval of the Minister or the Governor;*
- (i) such other powers or duties as may be prescribed.*

Furthermore, the following regulations prescribe powers and duties which cannot be delegated to the CEO:

- a) Regulation 18G of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 prohibits the delegation to a CEO of the powers and duties under:
 - i. Sections 7.12(a), 7.12A(3)(a) and 7.12A(4) of the Local Government Act 1995 (relating to meetings with auditors); and*
 - ii. Regulations 18C and 180 (relating to the selection and appointment of CEO's and reviews of their performance).
- b) Regulation 6 of the Local Government (Financial Management) Regulations 1996 prohibits the delegation of the duty to conduct an internal audit to an employee (including a CEO) who has been delegated the duty of maintaining the local government's day to day accounts or financial management operations.*

Delegations by Council to committees under the LG Act

Section 5.16 LG Act provides the power for a local government to delegated to a Committee of Council any of its powers and duties other than this power of delegation. Delegations must be in writing and can be general or have conditions attached.

Delegations by the Chief Executive Officer under the LG Act

Section 5.44 of the LG Act provides the power for the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to delegate to an employee the exercise of any of the CEO's powers or duties under the LG Act, other than this power to delegate. Section 5.44(3) also provides power to the CEO to delegate to another employee the exercise of powers delegated by Council to the CEO under s5.42 LG Act (known as a sub-delegation). The exercise of powers or duties sub-delegated by the CEO are subject to any conditions imposed by Council on its delegation to the CEO. Delegations by the CEO must be in writing and can be general or have conditions attached.

Delegations by Council under other legislation

Other legislation (e.g. Planning and Development Act 2005) provides the power for Council to delegate powers, duties or functions of a local government under that Act to the CEO or other employees.

Delegations to Local Government from State Government Entities

Various legislation such as the Environmental Protection Act 1986 provides for the delegation of powers and duties from the Departmental CEO to Local Government CEO and employees.

Record keeping obligations

Recipients of delegated powers and duties under the LG Act are required to keep a record of each occasion in which they exercise the powers or discharge the duties. Regulation 19 of the LG (Admin) Regulations 1996 states that:

Where a power or duty has been delegated under the Act to the CEO or to any other local government employee, the person to whom the power or duty has been delegated is to keep a written record of —

- (a) how the person exercised the power or discharged the duty;
- (b) when the person exercised the power or discharged the duty; and
- (c) the persons or classes of persons, other than council or committee members or employees of the local government, directly affected by the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty.
